GOOD WOMAN GONE
Mrs. Lottie Spremberg Passed Away at Her Home This Morning After a Long Illness.
Mrs. Lottie Spremberg passed away at her home on Commerce street this morning about 5 o'clock from a stroke of paralysis. She was stricken on December 8th, last, the stroke being of sufficient intensity as to render her helpless. Later a second stroke developed that was more severe, and on last Tuesday night a third and total stroke rendered her incapable of receiving any nourishment or medicine of any kind, she lingering until her death this morning.
Mrs. Spremberg was born in Schopp, Bavaria, January 30, 1843, and came to this country when a child, and after maturity marrying the late William Spremberg, they residing in Ripley for a number of years before taking up their home in this city.
She is survived by three daughters—Mrs. J. H. Orr, Misses Minnie and Louise Spremberg, all of this city, and two sons—Messrs. William F. Spremberg, yardmaster on the C. & O. here, and Henry Spremberg of Cincinnati, one sister, Mrs. Margaret Bamer of of Arnheim, Ohio, and one brother, Mr. Henry Lim of Atchison, Kansas.
Arrangements for the funeral have been made.

MAYOR'S PROCLAMATION
TO THE CITIZENS OF MAYSVILLE, KENTUCKY:
Friday, June 28th, 1918, is officially designated NATIONAL WAR SAVINGS DAY by the President of the United States and the Secretary of the Treasury. All loyal citizens of this community will accordingly devote the afternoon of said day, beginning at 2 o'clock, to attending the public meeting of your neighborhood and to subscribing for a specified amount of War Savings Stamps, to be purchased during the remaining months of the year.
All who are able should pledge themselves to save and invest to the limit allowed by law, and should promote the sale of this valuable Government security in large amounts during Pledge Week in Kentucky, June 24 to June 28, next.
THOMAS M. RUSSELL, Mayor.
WILL ADDRESS BANKERS ASSOCIATION
The Hon. J. N. Kelso, President of the First-Standard Bank and Trust Co. of this city, will be on the program at the Kentucky Bankers Association which will meet at Ashland, June 21. The subject for his talk will be "Patriotism of American Bankers in War Measures."
Judge W. S. Harkens, president of Bank Josephine at Prestonburg, and who is well known here, will deliver the response to the Hon. John F. Hager's speech of welcome.

FRENCH ADMINISTER DEFEAT TO THE ENEMY
GERMANS SUFFER HEAVY LOSSES IN REPTILE BY FRENCH COUNTER ATTACK.
Enemy Leaves More Than a Thousand Prisoners and Some Guns in Hands of Foch's Forces—American Troops Advance Positions and Capture 300 Prisoners in Belleau Wood.
Paris, June 11—"American troops brilliantly carried Belleau Wood this morning, taking 300 prisoners."
This announcement is made by the War Office report tonight.
Paris, June 11—"The French have struck the Germans a hard blow along a front of about seven and a half miles between Ribesmont and St. Maure recapturing Belleau, Genlis wood and the heights between Courcelles and Mortemer."
The official announcement by the War Office tonight of this gain says that the Germans suffered heavy losses and left more than a thousand prisoners and some guns in the hands of the French.
Several violent enemy attacks on Chevincourt were repulsed, but the Germans gained a footing in Machemont and Bethancourt, which places are being bitterly disputed.
Huns Meet Strong Resistance
With the French Army in France, June 11—"The strongest effort made by the Germans in the course of last night and this morning in their new offensive was in the direction of the railroad connecting Estres-St. Denis and Montdidier. The Germans met with such resistance that they reinforced for the moment their attempts in this region.
Negro troops, supported by Eutente Allied tanks, did great execution, delivered a brilliant counter attack in this vicinity and recaptured the forest running southwest of Marquignies, between Perle farm and Loges farm.
Late last night the Allied infantry re-entered the village of Mery which had formed a protective point for the American advance through the valley. Seeing their progress hindered on this side, the Germans turned toward the other flank and nearly reached Ribesmont to the north of which place the hottest encounters occurred in the woods of Deslaine court.
The enemy will be forced to debouch on the plain near the Oise river where he will find himself without the shelter of woods and will be subjected to a concentrated fire of Allied artillery and machine guns.
The Germans have found it necessary to bring forward more divisions to fill the gaps in their ranks caused by the terrific Allied gun fire.
The enemy's possession of the height of Ecouvillon, below Thiescourt, enabled him to filter troops through the small valleys, making the position of the Allies occupying the small hillocks perilous and causing them to retire.
The whole countryside hereabouts is dotted with these small hills, which are called mountains, forming a kind of bastion, which, when turned from one side or the other because absolute traps for the occupants. Most of the valleys run toward the banks of the River Oise.
The French troops fighting south-east of Montdidier have turned upon the Germans in a violent attack and administered a severe defeat to the enemy over a front of about seven and a half miles between Mubescourt and St. Manr. It was over this front that the French since Sunday's offensive began, had held back the Germans from keeping pace with the advance they were making from the center of the line south of Reims-sur-Matz toward the Oise river and where the onslaughts of the invaders were met with a defense in man and gun power that brought to the German enormous losses.
The village of Belleau and the heights rising between Courcelles and Mortemer were recaptured by the French and in addition to the infliction of heavy casualties on the enemy, General Foch's men took more than a thousand prisoners and also captured guns.

In the immediate center of the line between Montdidier and Noyon, where the Germans had been able to extend the apex of their drive to Anteuil. The enemy was also attacked and driven back, but southwest of Noyon he succeeded in reaching Machemont and Bethancourt, the last named place lying on the west bank of the Oise river.
TROOPS FROM MINNESOTA PASS THROUGH MAYSVILLE
Yesterday evening about 5:15 a special troop train loaded with a large number of soldiers from Minnesota held in this city for a few minutes. Coffee and lemonade were given them down at the C. & O. station, being placed on board in large 10 gallon cans. There were 500 boys in this train.
Several of our First Aid girls delivered them smiles, magazines, and handshakes in quite a patriotic manner, so that the soldier boys hated to wave good-bye.
MAYOR RUSSELL PETITIONED
Mayor Thomas M. Russell this morning received a petition through the mail that it is hoped he will pay attention to and have strictly enforced. All law-abiding and sanitary people will highly commend him if he takes steps immediately to bring his influence to bear and prevent this peril to our community. All residents should see the Mayor and make a personal request that he attend to this at once, as delay may mean disaster to our community.

20 POINTS
Win the Contests Between the Athenaeum and Adelphe Societies of the Maysville High School
Last Night by 316 to 366
Points—Contests Stand 6 to 3 in Favor of Athenaeums.
The annual contest between the Adelphe and Athenaeum Literary Societies of the Maysville High School was given before a large audience at the High School auditorium last evening. The Athenaeum Society won by 20 points, the score being 316 to 366. The program for the evening was: Adelphe—Oration by Edward Barbour. Athenaeum—Oration by Frank Browning. Hays' Quartet. Adelphe Review—Eleanor Wood. Athenaeum Chronicle—Eugene McCarthy. Singing by High School girls. Essays—Adelphe—Frances Marsh. Athenaeum—Georgia Hicks. Readings—Adelphe—Lucille Lewis. Athenaeum—Margaret Smith. This contest is one of the closest that has been held in the school for many years, great interest being displayed by the pupils and their friends over the final outcome of the program. The numbers on the program were all exceedingly interesting and the close attention of the audience was held to the very last. The orations by Mr. Barbour and Mr. Browning showed soundness of thought and were well delivered. Miss Eleanor Wood's Review and Mr. Eugene McCarthy's Chronicle were very witty and original papers and were humorously delivered.

Miss Georgia Hicks and Miss Frances Marsh's Essays were well given and the subject of both well chosen and interesting.
The program was concluded by Readings by Miss Margaret Smith and Miss Lucille Lewis, who most talentfully delivered these.
The judges of the contest were Mrs. Mary Lewis, Miss Mary Wilson and Mr. William Derr.
Misses Hattie Gray and Cloa Stewart of Aberdeen left this morning for Oxford, Ohio, where they will take a summer course of study.
John Massie has been appointed Justice of the Peace of the Fourth Magisterial District of Robertson county.
Arthur J. Pope of Forest avenue, this city, joined the U. S. Navy at Cincinnati Monday.

THE DAILY PUBLIC LEDGER

Published Daily Except Sunday, Fourth of July, Thanksgiving and Christmas by the Ledger Publishing Co., Maysville, Kentucky.

EDITOR AND MANAGER.....CLARENCE MATHEWS

Local and Long Distance Telephone No. 40. Office—Public Ledger Building.

Entered at the Maysville, Kentucky, Postoffice as Second-class Mail Matter.

The American home market is the richest trade prize in the wide world. For, under the protective policy, this has become incomparably the richest nation in the world. This has been brought about over the protests of the free traders, who have insisted on throwing open our markets to the exploitation of foreign producers. The free gift of this market, with the incidental sacrifice of the welfare of the American people, such as accompanied our two near free trade experiments in 1891 and 1914, is a donation to the world in general, including the powers we are now fighting, which no one has the slightest right to talk about making. The constitution of the United States reposes in Congress the right to enact our tariff laws. That right cannot be bartered away by treaty. And as for the statement that we are fighting in this war for the establishment of world-wide free trade, it is absolutely without justification and should fool no one, not even those who make it. We are in the war for, not against, the rights and interests of the American people. We are not in a war to establish our right to surrender our markets to invasion by foreign competition armed with a weapon of cheapness secured through the sacrifice of human values. We have had the right since the days of Washington and following Washington's example, we have declined to exercise it.—National Republican.

Uncle Sam has concluded to furnish an adequate amount of smoking tobacco in the daily rations of the soldier boys in France instead of having such articles contributed through private sources or forcing the men to buy such things under the item of luxuries.

Perhaps those of the "unco guid" will voice a protest on the ground that the soldiers ought to be prohibited from using tobacco. There are just such people in the U. S. A. It may be observed that they are not doing any of the fighting, and very little of the contributing, but they know how all these things ought to be done. They would measure the morals of all other men by their own distorted notions.

As a rule we believe, however, that the great mass of the people will say that if the boys want anything, they are entitled to have it. They have not manifested any inclination to over-indulgence in liquors. General Pershing says his men are models of temperance, giving the denial direct to reports started from some source that the soldiers were going to hell in a handbasket through the drink habit.

To those who use the weed, it is a great solace and comfort in time of trouble, and if the soldiers want to smoke pipes or cigars or cigarettes, we believe the public verdict will be that they are entitled to do so.

A THOROUGH TEST

One to Convince the Most Skeptical Maysville Reader.

The test of time is the test that counts.

Doan's Kidney Pills have made their reputation by effective action. The following case is typical. Maysville residents should be convinced.

The testimony is confirmed—the proof complete. Testimony like this cannot be ignored.

Henry S. Gallenstein, blacksmith, 124 W. Third St., Maysville, says: "My kidneys were out of order and I had pains through my back. Doan's Kidney Pills put an entire stop to the pains and my kidneys became well." (Statement given January 9, 1912).

RESULTS THAT REMAIN

Over four years later, on November 14, 1916, Mr. Gallenstein said: "I haven't had any need of a kidney medicine since I last recommended Doan's Kidney Pills. The benefit they gave me has been permanent."

Mr. Gallenstein is only one of many Maysville people who have gratefully endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills. If your back aches—if your kidneys bother you, don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS, the same that Mr. Gallenstein had—the remedy backed by home testimony. 60 cents at all stores. Foster-McBurn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y. "When Your Back is Lame—Remember the Name."

WOULD EXTEND CLOSED SEASONS ON MIGRATORY BIRDS

Washington—Slight changes in the regulations under the Migratory-Bird Law have been proposed by the United States Department of Agriculture in accordance with a resolution adopted at a recent meeting in Washington of the Migratory-Bird Law Advisory Board. The proposals have been published, and a period of three months is allowed during which the changes may be examined and considered before final adoption. The regulations are finally adopted will become effective on or after September 1, 1918.

Owing to the continued need of protection, it is proposed to extend to September 1, 1920, the closed season which would have expired September 1, 1918, on band-tailed pigeons; little brown, sandhill, and whooping cranes; wood duck, swans, curlews, yillies and all shorebirds except the black-bellied and golden plovers, Wilson snipe or jacksnipe, woodcock, and the greater and lesser yellowlegs. It is also proposed to continue the closed seasons on rails in California and Vermont, and on black-bellied and golden plovers in California and Utah until September 1, 1920, and on woodcock in Illinois, Kentucky, and Missouri until October 1, 1920.

EGG CANDLING

Can You Tell a Bad Egg?—Federal and State Experts Will Show How It Is Done at E. L. Manchester Produce Co.

There will be an egg candling demonstration in Maysville on June 13, between the hours of 10 a. m. and 4 p. m. at E. L. Manchester Produce Company.

Experts from the United States Department of Agriculture and the Kentucky State Food and Drug Department will show how to make an egg candler; how to candle eggs; and how to prevent spoilage. Better methods means better eggs and more money for them. It also means more food for our people and will help win the war.

To those who desire to do so, opportunity will be given to candle eggs themselves. Any person bringing eggs, not to exceed thirty dozen, may have them graded by the experts without charge.

Each one attending this meeting will be given, free of charge, valuable publications on egg handling, some of them illustrated with colored pictures.

If you raise poultry, sell or buy eggs you cannot afford to miss this demonstration. It is free and will never come to this town again.

Come yourself and invite your neighbor.

There will also be demonstrations at Cynthiana today and Flemingsburg tomorrow.

THE EXISTING INFLUENCE OF THE WAR

"In my own mind I am convinced that not a hundred years of peace could have knitted this Nation together as this single year of war has knitted it together, and, better even than that if possible, it is knitting the world together. Look at the picture: In the center of the scene 4 nations engaged against the world, and at every point of vantage showing that they are seeking selfish aggrandizement; and against them 23 Governments representing the greater part of the population of the world, drawn together into a new sense of community of purpose, a new sense of unity of life." (From the President's Red Cross Speech.)

It Completely Restored Her Strength

Brooklyn, N. Y.—"Pneumonia left me weak and tired, with pains under my shoulder blades, a bad cough and no appetite. Five bottles of Vinol restored my strength and health. I gained in weight and my cough disappeared."—Mrs. B. Richter, 132 Menhass St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

This is because Vinol is a constitutional, cod liver and iron remedy which creates an appetite, aids digestion, enriches the blood and in this natural manner restores health and strength. Formula on every bottle. Show it to your doctor. He knows.

PRIVATE PEAT.

"Two Years in Hell and Back With a Smile."

Private Peat—two years on the Western Front, through the horrors of Ypres, long before the average war lecturer knew what war was, is back to tell us there are worse things than war. He was there when the Hun first used poison gas. He knows fighting in the trenches, the life and hardships and triumphs of the common soldier, and he knows how to tell about them. He brings a new idea in war lectures. He is inspirational, and he carries his listeners far above the field of battle to the thought of higher and better things. He brings a message of comfort to the mothers here at home, and no one is better able to bring cheer, for he comes back from his two years in hell with a smile.

Private Peat saw his whole company, ammunition gone, surrounded by Germans and captured. Shot through the chest, lying two days in the open, he was finally rescued and carried back to his own lines. His right lung is gone—his right arm is powerless. But he returns with a smile, a fine example of that high courage and good cheer which have carried the British soldier through these years of hell with never a cry of despair. He talks in deadly earnest, but there is also a fine humor and the spirit of youth and adventure in all he says. This young Canadian, with the blue honor shoulder straps of the First Canadian Contingent, is a needed tonic in a world of war speakers. As the New York Sun says: "He does the trick where others had only half succeeded."

Private Peat has written his own story, which you should read ("Private Peat," Bobbs-Merrill). But his lecture and his book are not the same. You should hear him, too. At Chautauqua second day.

IRVIN S. COBB.

To intimate that any American doesn't know Irvin S. Cobb, and hasn't read and chuckled over his Judge Priest stories, his intimate essays on human anatomy, and his never-to-be-forgotten "Speaking of Operations," is to reflect upon that American's patriotism. For "Old Irv Cobb," as he is affectionately known down New York way, is a national institution, like pumpkin pie, Fourth of July and baseball. Now the Chautauqua is to perform a real service to folks in this community by permitting everybody to hear Mr. Cobb in person, with the biggest subject he has ever written or talked about, "My Recent Experience on the Fighting Front in France and Flanders."

Mr. Cobb is coming to the Chautauqua fresh from a trip to the Western Front, where he has been reporting the latest developments of the war for the Saturday Evening Post. It will be recalled that his articles on the events in Belgium, following the outbreak of hostilities, evoked the widest interest of any articles written at that time, and established him as the greatest war reporter of the present day.

Irvin S. Cobb is to-day the keenest observer now writing in America. He has the surest insight and the quickest perception of salient characteristics of any American writer since Mark Twain. He will give Chautauquans the tragedy of war, but it is impossible for Cobb to hide a humor which is effervescent and unending, and his story will be spiced with laughs.

THE AMERICAN'S DUTY

The main duty of noncombatant Americans briefly may be stated as follows:

Increase production, economize its consumption, lend your savings to the Government, and hold your Liberty Bonds.

And our observation is that when a woman is raising five or six children she hardly ever keeps a diary.

BOLSHIEVSKI NOW LIVING LAST LAYS—COUNTER REVOLUTION- ARY MOVEMENT IN RUSSIA IS GROWING RAPIDLY

Stockholm, June 10.—The counter revolutionary movement in Russia is growing. The Bolsheviks are living their last days.

Unless the present regime is overthrown by the combined efforts of other revolutionary democratic parties, there will be a counter revolution of the monarchial supporters in Moscow and Petrograd, similar to that which triumphed in Ukraine.

Skoropadsky, aided by the bourgeoisie and cadets, is ruling Ukraine and has virtually restored the old regime. Mannerheim in Finland, and Krassnoff, in the Don regions, have triumphed in like manner. In a similar way, the provinces of the Baltic region have been occupied, while the provinces of Pskoff and Minsk are under the banner of Austro-German imperialism.

Russia is threatened by foreign imperialists on the northwest and south. The Turks are again advancing in the Caucasus, aiming to unite at Tiflis, with the Germans, who are advancing from the north.

With masked cunning by friendly notes through German Ambassador Mirbach, Germany is gradually approaching the heart of Russia, in order to pierce it at the desirable moment.

An alliance of German and Russian counter revolutionaries, acting from two fronts—the inner and the outer—are preparing for a final and complete counter revolution.

Last week, in Moscow a plot was discovered in which hundreds of reactionaries aimed to kill the republic and restore the monarchy, through simultaneous uprisings in Moscow, Petrograd and other centers, in co-operation with German bayonets.

The German command, of course, is taking no official part in these plots, but is splendidly informed of the situation and is ready to appear as the protector of the new reactionary regime at the proper moment.

It is still impossible to foretell immediate developments, but it is certain the brief respite is nearing its end, however much the Bolsheviks seek to prolong it. The Bolsheviks themselves admit.

"We are already a corpse; but there is no one to bury us."

The Bolshevik regime, due to methods of violence similar to the old Czarism in an effort to preserve itself, is universally hated. The proletariat are leaving the Bolsheviks en masse.

All factory workers in Petrograd have organized. Their conference demanded a reunited, democratic front, abrogation of the Brest-Litovsk treaty and formation of a national socialist Russia in order to restore industry, inaugurate social reforms and end civil war.

The Bolsheviks planned to dissolve the conference but got cold feet. The conference is planning a general strike unless the Bolsheviks yield. There is no doubt the Russian revolution is facing its final battle, in the counter revolution and German intrigue. This will decide the fate of democracy in Russia. The forces at the disposal of the Bolsheviks are too weak to meet the situation. Both the proletariat and the peasantry are deserting the Bolsheviks, they finally realizing the terrible consequences of the Brest-Litovsk peace.

There is complete disorganization of Russia's financial and economic life in most districts, the Bolsheviks remaining in power only because of their hired bayonets.

It is as clear as daylight that they will be unable to organize the democracy against its foreign and inner foes, or solve the colossal economic problems.

Only the combined democratic elements will be able to organize a real army to end the disorganization of the whole of Russia. It is not yet too late to accomplish this, through a united democratic government, but the Bolsheviks prefer to swallow daily ultimatums from Germany. The Bolshevik press also has surrendered, and is concentrating its attacks on the members of the right and the Mensheviks, knowing the peasantry and workmen are flocking to the latter.

Petrograd and Moscow are now quiet. She former is virtually starving, the population getting about an eighth of a pound of bread a day.

Soon, however, something will burst. The workmen themselves are preparing to overthrow the Bolsheviks to save the republic before growing counter revolution restores the monarchy.

PLANT POTATOES FOR HOME USE

Washington—It isn't too late the first half of June to plant late potatoes in all sections of the United States, say specialists of the United States Department of Agriculture who are recommending that all available space in gardens be used for this crop to safeguard home supplies and to reduce transportation.

Their recommendation is made despite the fact that potatoes require more than most garden crops, and should not be planted in small garden to the exclusion of other vegetables. One bushel of seed potatoes will plant one-tenth of an acre or a plot 44 by 100 feet and will produce enough potatoes for the use of a family of five during the winter. At present there is a surplus of old potatoes on the market and sufficient seed can be obtained at reasonable prices. It is suggested therefore that seed be used more liberally than last year, and that 12 to 15 bushels of seed be used per acre.

It is also urged that city authorities and managers of large corporations arrange for the use of unoccupied land and have it plowed, prepared and assigned for potato growing. It is suggested that they could purchase seed in large quantities and furnish it to the growers at a price just enough above cost to cover handling and shrinkage. Where fertilizers are needed they can be secured in the same manner.

The demand for potatoes as a means for conserving wheat and other foods is becoming greater. Because of the pressure on transportation facilities it is desirable that more potatoes be produced near where they are to be consumed. The large production of potatoes in home gardens and in small patches during the season of 1917 is thought to have prevented a potato shortage last winter in many

THIS WOMAN SAVED FROM AN OPERATION

By taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, One of Thousands of Such Cases.

Black River Falls, Wis.—"As Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound saved me from an operation, I cannot say enough in praise of it. I suffered from organic troubles and my side hurt me so I could hardly be up from my bed, and I was unable to do my housework. I had the best doctors in Eau Claire and they wanted me to have an operation, but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cured me so I did not need the operation, and I am telling all my friends about it."—Mrs. A. W. BINZER, Black River Falls, Wis.

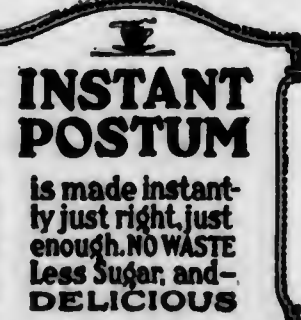

It is just such experiences as that of Mrs. Binzer that has made this famous root and herb remedy a household word from ocean to ocean. Any woman who suffers from inflammation, ulceration, displacements, backache, nervousness, irregularities or "the blues" should not rest until she has given it a trial, and for special advice write Lydia E. sections of the country during the time that cold winter prevented shipments.

Late potatoes can be planted after peas, lettuce, radishes, onions, and other early garden crops are removed. The second crop of potatoes in the Southern States can be planted as late as from August 1 to 15, using either hold-over cold-storage seed or first-crop potatoes as seed.

NOTED ENGLISH OFFICER

Delivers Fine Patriotic Address to Large Audience at Opera House Last Evening.

Lieutenant Kerfey, an English Officer, of the Royal Dragons of England, delivered one of the finest and most stirring patriotic talks that has been delivered here, at the Washington Opera House last evening.

Due to a mistake on the part of the Publicity Department at Louisville the date of Lieutenant Kerfey's arrival was confused, and his coming was unexpected to all. It was then too late to advertise his arrival and make arrangements through the newspapers, so the assistance of Mayor T. M. Russell was sought and who readily turned over the Opera House to the speaker after the second show.

To advertise the speaking, the bells in town were rung, factory and boat whistles were blown and automobiles were driven from house to house with speakers announcing Lieutenant Kerfey's arrival and soon a large crowd was gathered in the Opera House.

Lieutenant Kerfey, since the outbreak of the war has seen active service in France and is now out of active service on account of lameness caused by shell fire wounds in the knee. In a most graphic and interesting manner, the Lieutenant told of conditions in "No Man's Land" and of the valiant stand the allies were making against the gray horde, which was making vain endeavors to break through the Allies lines and devastate the rest of France.

To the people at home, whose duty it is to support financially and morally our brave Allies and our own army over there, he appealed to them to save every cent that could be saved, and invest it in War Savings Stamps, every bit of which goes into the ships, that are to carry our army of boys safely across to undo a tyrant's wrong and to victory. Lieutenant Kerfey said "It is possible that the war will be over in one year, if the people of America buy Liberty Bonds and War Savings Stamps and support the organizations that are the backbone of the army, but if they lay down on their part, four years may not see its conclusion."

Miss Nell Sutherland has concluded this term of history teaching at the Ashland High School for this year and is now at her summer home at Norfolk, Nebraska.

GERMANY CONSIDERS BIG NAVAL OFFENSIVE

Washington, June 11—Further evidence that Germany, in its efforts to end the war this summer is planning to support its land offensive by sending its high seas forces against the combined British and American grand fleet, is given in an official dispatch today from Switzerland.

"A telegram of an official nature," says the dispatch, "is being spread broadcast in Germany, which says that the German admiralty is considering a big naval offensive. Orders supposed to have been given to keep whole fleet in readiness and a certain number of naval officers of high rank have been hurriedly re-called from Switzerland and other neutral countries, where they have been spending their leave."

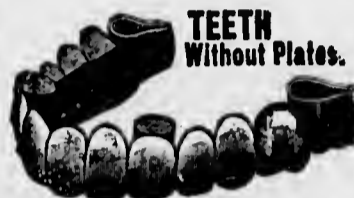

"The Kieler Zeitung speaks of extraordinary activity in the ports and the Hamburger Post publishes an interview with Von Tirpitz, who was asked if Germany was in a position to measure herself with the English fleet. The admiral naturally replied in the affirmative, saying that after their land forces have pushed the French and English back on the other sides of Paris, it would be the turn of the Kaiser's boats to drive the English off the high seas."

Both in Washington and in the Allied capitals a German seas offensive on a great scale had been recognized as a possibility and the approach of the Teutonic fleet in the North Sea at any time would not be unexpected. Rear Admiral Gleaves said in a public address, not long ago, that word had come to the British fleet that the Germans were at last ready for the supreme test. If the battle does come the American naval forces will play their part. American dreadnaughts under Rear Admiral Hugh Rodman joined the British fleet sometime ago and Admiral Gleaves in his recent address said when Admiral Beatty, commanding the British sea fleets, heard that the Germans were coming, he assigned the American ships an important place in the line.

American naval officers are no less anxious for a finish fight than the British and in all Allied quarters there is supreme confidence. If the two fleets come to grips, officers are certain the Germans will be decisively defeated.

Dr. B. B. Bailey, pastor of the First Baptist Church, was called to Shelbyville today to conduct the funeral service of Mr. J. V. Boyd, a former parishioner.

GOVERNMENT NEEDS BLACK WALNUT

Has Asked "Boy Scouts of America" to Locate the Timber.

In order to carry out the program of the War Department it is of the utmost importance that large quantities of Black Walnut Lumber should be secured for its use.

Black walnut is used by the Ordnance Department for the manufacture of gunstocks and by the Signal Corps for the manufacture of propellers for battle and bombing airplanes.

Scout Master B. Y. Chambers has been requested, through the medium of the "Boy Scouts of America," to get the location of all timber in Mason county and furnish the Government with the name of the owners, the sizes of the trees, and the price at which it can be bought.

There are no longer, large individual lots of walnut timber, but there is a very large supply when collected into groups or centers. At the present time there are to be found only a few trees here and there.

With the exception of mahogany, which has to be imported and thus burdens the shipping facilities of our country, no other wood is so well adapted for airplane propellers and since four or five propellers are required for each airplane and only the best grade of black walnut can be utilized for this purpose, it is important that the Government know, immediately, the location of all available supplies.

The information data, as collected by the Scouts, will be sent, at once, to U. S. Forest Service, Washington, and placed at the disposal of the Government.

Any land owner, having black walnut on his land or any one knowing of a single tree, will be doing their patriotic duty to notify Scoutmaster B. Y. Chambers by calling telephone No. 109.

Mrs. G. W. Royse returned last night from a visit to her father, in Fleming county, where she was called by the serious illness of her parent, who was no better when she left.

The Ladies' Missionary Society of the Baptist Church will meet with Mrs. C. P. Dieterich Thursday afternoon.

Mr. Maurice Hubenacker of the county, passed through this city Wednesday and is now in Newport News, Va.

IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE

Bells clanging, whistles blowing, horns tooting, such a din had not been heard in this peaceful traffic jammed town since the ice broke last winter. The populace rushed out, some crying peace has been declared, others hearing in the clang of the bells "fire". The town is on fire declared another and one man affirmed that it was a cloudburst and the Ohio river was coming, down, the last fact which none disputed. With one accord all followed the crowd which led them to the Washington Opera House, where Lieutenant Kerfey delivered a splendid patriotic address.
